SUMMARY POINTS OF OUTSTANDING ACTIONS

- Invite Cathy Phipps to provide an EHC update at an upcoming CANdo meeting. ACTION: Karen RESULT: Cathy would be delighted to provide this and has offered for us to join her with a tour through EHC at the May CANdo meeting.
- Upcoming Van event: Tarpari Wellbeing Day, Wednesday April 14th, 10.00am-2.30pm at Memorial Park. ACTION: Karen RESULT: Roster sent out looking for volunteers (to be finalised at April meeting), Activity of van: Fitness testing by Ash McNicol, Health & Wellbeing, with Apples as giveaway. Twister game activity for smaller children.
- Concern around raising of dust levels at schools in Port Pirie ACTION: Karen RESULT: Frank Boyes has taken to the tenby10 Working Party meeting. Council has advised that they have no powers to impose conditions upon the developments as all of the assessment and approval of planned works was conducted entirely by the Office of the coordinator - General. EHC have spoken with most schools re tenby10 awareness.

SUMMARY POINTS

- Welcome to Barbara Daw, new CANdo committee member: Barbara has worked with the Aboriginal Health Team for the past 5 years, and held the position of Health Promotions Officer for the past 2 years. This position assists with the implementation of new groups and services together with coordinating planning on mobile health services and promotional activities. Once such activity is the Tarpari Wellbeing Day; a community event focusing on Aboriginal health and culture.
- GM's views on Tenby10 Project: Copy of Tall Stack Yak newsletter, edition 121 - not yet printed given - front page story explains all.
- Tarpari Day Volunteers wanted for tenby10 Van
- News from Greenteam: Everything is still in progress with the Tenby10 Employee/Contractor Awareness Campaign. Can we please put on our thinking caps for ideas on tenby10 messaging as we approach the end of 2010. Even though tenby10 officially finishes at the end of 2010 - the work doesn't stop there.
- Tenby10 Information Folder: Supply to Michelle Action: Karen
- Suggested that we have the Tenby10 van present at Youth Week Activities. Action: Karen to contact discuss with tenby10 team at Nyrstar, if decision to go, contact Amy Lorusso

APOLOGIES IN ADVANCE

Elin Mezzino will be absent for April meeting
